

CERTIFICATE OF ENTITLEMENT

TO SICKNESS AND MATERNITY BENEFITS FOR PERSONS RESIDING OUTSIDE OF GERMANY IN A MEMBER STATE OF THE EU, THE EEA OR SWITZERLAND

Purpose

This document is to certify that the person indicated below is covered by a substitutive private health insurance with in Germany. Based on Article 146 (1) of the Insurance Supervision Act this private health insurance replaces health insurance coverage provided by the statutory social security system. Private substitutive health insurance is fully recognized in Article 206 of the Solvency II Framework Directive.

[name of the insurance company]

The holder is entitled to full reimbursement, in accordance with the terms of the insurance contract, of the costs of medical treatment provided in

[name of the country],

if medically necessary due to illness or accident. Necessary medical treatments and examinations due to pregnancy or childbirth are also covered.

This document is not intended as an ID card for treatment among healthcare providers.

In addition, this form does not regulate the insurance obligation abroad. It does not intend to implement the EU-Regulation on the coordination of social security systems but solely to certify the existence of comprehensive¹ health insurance coverage in the country mentioned above.

This certificate does not entitle the holder to receive a national health insurance card.
